

18. What support do learners and employers receive during a learnership?

Different SETAs offer a range of services in this regard. SETAs generally register and manage the learnership agreement, quality assure the delivery of training through their provider accreditation processes, offer various implementation guidelines, and sometimes give support through workshops or other interventions.

[Answer to FAQ 18, The NQF and Learnerships, the NQF Gateway]